Mrs. Jennilyn Small

Jennilyn (Day) Small, a 2005 CBA alumnus, graduated from Bob Jones University in 2010 with a B.S. in English Education and a minor in Composite Science. She began teaching English and science in a christian school in North Carolina the same year. Jennilyn completed a Masters in Educational Leadership from BJU in 2016, and soon thereafter moved "back home" to Midland, where God opened the doors for her to teach part time at Calvary in the middle and high school. She and her husband, Joel, have two daughters, Jordyn and Jenna. Jennilyn also enjoys serving in various ministries of CBC and participating in Midland MOPS. In her free time, she enjoys sewing, browsing yard sales, and drinking a good cup of coffee.

Mrs. Vivian Court

Señora Court has been teaching Spanish at CBA since 2006. She learned to speak Spanish at home in her native country of Cuba. After she moved to the USA, she earned a Bachelors degree and Masters degree in Business Administration from Florida International University.

Mrs. Court has two children, teaches in Junior Church, is involved in AWANA Cubbies, and works with her husband's accounting practice. She loves teaching, children, gardening, and hot weather.

Pastor James Day

James came to Calvary in K-4 and graduated from here in 2002. After attending Bob Jones University, he began teaching in 2006 at a Springfield Christian School in Michigan. He later took on the responsibility of youth pastor at Dixie Baptist Church. In 2015, Pastor James became the youth pastor at Calvary Baptist Church. Pastor James teaches 11th grade Bible Doctrines. James is married to Tiffany Day (2nd grade teacher) and has two children, Sadie and Peyton. James enjoys the outdoors and is an average fantasy football manager.

Dr. Dana Everson

Dr. Dana Everson is a saxophonist, pianist, arranger, teacher, and music educator based in mid-Michigan. He has quietly been one of mid-Michigan's outstanding saxophonists since the late 1970's. He has over 400 published works.

Dr. Everson has a Doctorate of Ministry from Northland Baptist Bible College as well as Masters in Sacred Music from Pensacola Christian College and a Masters in Music from Michigan State University.

Dr. Everson has taught at the college level and is currently offering private lessons in multiple instruments as well as accompanying groups at Calvary Baptist Academy. He is very much over-qualified for his position as is a tremendous asset to the Academy.

Mrs. Gloria Everson

Gloria Everson started teaching the Concert Choir at CBA in 1980. She has studied at Delta College, MSU, U of M, and Interlochen National Music Camp. Her primary instrument is voice and continues to give private vocal lessons here at Calvary. She is married to Dr. Dana Everson, has 5 children and 7 grandchildren. Mrs. Everson loves teenagers and desires to train her students to use the ministry of music to their best ability for God's glory.
